

General Instruction

Passbook is a record of transactions for the account. It should be kept in a safe place and balance shown in it cannot be altered.

It is the duty of the depositor to confirm balance shown in the passbook from the concerned post office and postmaster. He/she should pay the amount actually available in the passbook.

Take a printed receipt from the post office when you hand over the passbook to the post office for any purpose.

Keep the passbook in your personal custody and postmaster will not be responsible for any loss of money in case passbook is lost or handed over to any other person.

Keep specimen signatures in the passbook.

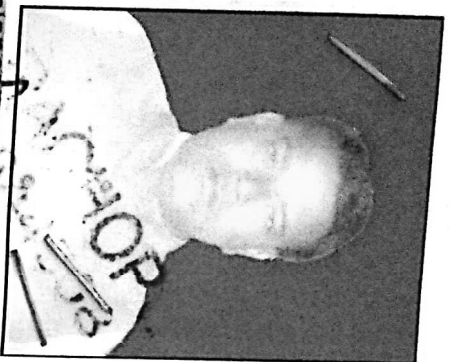

Balance after transaction written in the passbook and contact postmaster immediately in case of any discrepancy.

In case of loss of passbook, report the matter in writing to the postmaster immediately.

Change of address if any to the postmaster.

Hand over, blank signed withdrawal forms to any person authorized by the postmaster.

Do not appoint postmasters or authorised agents as messengers for withdrawals of money from your account.
