

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

1. Passbook is a record of transaction information of the depositor and balance cannot be claimed legally.
2. It is the duty of the depositor to confirm the balance shown in the passbook from the concerned office and post office is legally liable for the amount actually available in its record.
3. Always take a printed receipt from the post office when you hand over the passbook to the post office for any purpose.
4. Always keep the passbook in your personal custody and post office will not be responsible for the money in case passbook is handed over to other person.
5. Do not keep specimen signatures in the passbook.
6. Check balance after transaction with the post office and contact postmaster immediately in case of any discrepancy.
7. In case of loss of passbook, report to the post office by writing to the postmaster immediately.
8. Intimate change of address if any to the postmaster.
9. Don't hand over blank signed withdrawal slip to any person including authorized agents.
10. Do not appoint postmasters or authorised agents as messengers for withdrawal of money from your account.
